WELCOME ADDRESS

CHAIRMAN, LOCAL ORGANIZING COMMITTEE 2022 NBA AGC

Dear Distinguished Learned Friends,

On behalf of my colleagues of the Lagos Branch of the NBA and indeed other branches in Lagos State, I warmly welcome you to Lagos State for this year's Annual General Conference (AGC) and the Annual General Meeting (AGM) of the Nigerian Bar Association (NBA or Association) beginning on the 19th August to 26th August 2022. I also welcome our friends who are not lawyers but have come to fraternize with us and support us as we seek ways to move this country forward.

After about twelve months since we gathered like this to reminisce on the legal practice and our nation, we have come together to make collective decisions, wine, dine, jaw-jaw and take stock of our Association in the past 12 months.

I know that some of us came earlier and attended the Jumat on Friday and church service on Sunday respectively. I believe our earlier conferees have taken the opportunity to appreciate the ambience Lagos State has to offer. If you have just arrived, I encourage you to take out time to enjoy the ambience of Lagos including the culture and cuisine.

There are numerous speakers, panelists and participants who will dissect issues that have been lined up for discussion. I look forward to the invaluable inputs and contributions of both our in-person and virtual attendees as the conference progresses.

I believe that as we discuss, see old friends, put faces to emails, processes and legal opinions, we will use the opportunity to attend and appreciate all that Lagos has to offer with the hope that today inspires ideas and discussions around the ways that can make our country a better place.

I wish everyone a wonderful conference.

Ikechukwu Uwanna
Chairman, Local Organizing Committee
2022 NBA AGC

WELCOME ADDRESS

CHAIRMAN, NBA IKEJA BRANCH

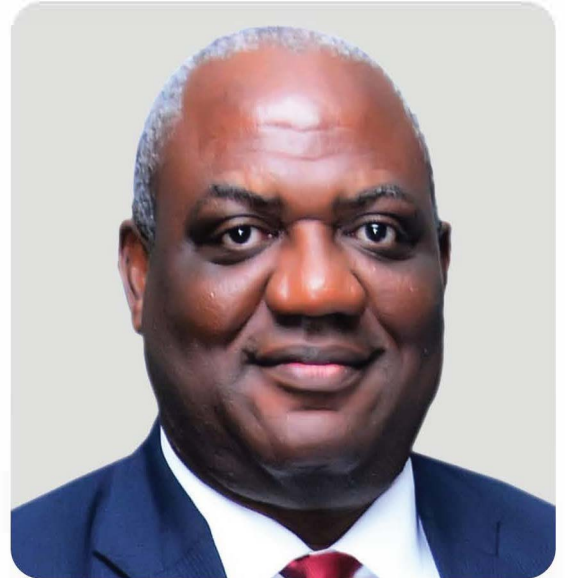

The Chairman, Exco and entire members of the NBA, Ikeja branch felicitate with the progressive minded President of the Nigeria Bar Association, all national officers, the TCCP of this year's conference and the entire Bar for a successful Annual General Conference, 2022 tagged "The Bold Transition" in Lagos.

The choice of the theme is apt in view of the times we live in. The conference will avail us the forum to examine issues that stares us in the face both as legal practitioners and as a nation. It is an opportunity to draw a road map to direct the affairs of our association and country better.

I must commend Mr. Tobenna Erojikwe the chairman of the TCCP and his team for their efforts in putting together this world class conference. I challenge participants at the conference to use the opportunities presented to discover ways through concerted efforts to make things work better.

This is "Eko for show". I wish all conferees a successful conference.

Bartholomew Aguegbodo
Chairman, Ikeja Branch

WELCOME ADDRESS

CHAIRMAN, NBA IKORODU BRANCH

Gentlemen Conferees, this is Lagos!

The city of aquatic splendour. The commercial capital of Nigeria and the centre of excellence!

The city of our Senior Colleague, our beloved Royal Father and the Oba of Lagos - HRM Oba Rilwan Akiolu, the Olowo Eko of Lagos and of HRM Oba Kabiru Adewale Shotobi, the Ayangburen of Ikorodu!

Ikorodu indigenes cum Lawyers since time immemorial and the Ikorodu Bar since its creation in the year 2002 - (twenty years ago), have played active roles in National Bar activities. The Ikorodu Bar has joined in the successful hosting of all Conferences held in Lagos. This Conference is no exception.

As a member of the Local Organising Committee (LOC) of this Conference I have, in conjunction with my Colleagues in the LOC, ensured provision of adequate and round the clock security for all Conferees, smooth and efficient transportation system and scintillating programmes for your maximum enjoyment and for that peculiar unforgettable Lagos Conference experience.

Lagos has remained the centre of activism and the leading light in championing progressive policies in Nigeria as a result of the activities of our departed legal luminaries. Our forebears have always left no stone unturned in ensuring a vibrant, welfare driven and people-oriented Bar in line with the charge of the first indigenous Nigerian Lawyer - Mr. Christopher Sapara Williams who said: "A lawyer lives for the direction of the people and the advancement of the cause of society". Towards this end, Ikorodu produced two past Presidents of the NBA - Prince Adebayo Ogunsanya, SAN and Chief Babatunde Olusola Benson, SAN who used their good offices to reposition the Bar for greater heights and for impactful contribution to the Nigerian nation State, entrenchment of democracy and the rule of law.

Chief T.O.S. Benson, SAN is another illustrious son of Ikorodu who was a father of the Bar who was indispensable in political activities in Nigeria till his demise in 2008. Ikorodu is also the home of the great Bar man and senior captain of industry, High Chief (Prince) Adewunmi Ogunsanya, SAN - Chairman of the foremost entertainment outfit in Nigeria - Multi Choice Nigeria who doubles as the Life Patron of NBA Ikorodu Branch. He is the child of the former President of the NBA - Prince Adebayo Ogunsanya, SAN.

We also parade some of the finest judicial minds for the Bench in Lagos and Nigeria to wit: the Honourable Chief Judge of Lagos State, Hon. Justice Kazeem O. Alogba and Justice of the Court of Appeal, Hon. Justice Habeeb Olawale Abiru, JCA among others.

The present leadership of the House of Representatives of Nigeria can hardly function without our vibrant Colleague, front rank legislator and benevolent indigene of Ikorodu - Honourable Babajimi Benson, Chairman House Committee on Defence. Prince Rotimi Ogunleye is another worthy Colleague and indigene whose impact as Commissioner for Physical Planning in Lagos State till May 2019 became a reference point and model to other States in Nigeria.

Mr. Nurudeen Ogbara, Esq. ("Ogbara again!") is another indigene who touched the lives of many Colleagues and citizens through vociferous advocacy. He helped to move the Bar forward in many respects. Beneficiaries of his advocacy include Mr. Ebun Adegboruwa, SAN and many others. Mr. Adekunle Adegoke, SAN and Senator Siraju Ajibola Basiru were student union activists who had issues with University authorities and had to be represented in court. Their rights were fully restored upon cerebral advocacy of Mr. Ogbara. Till date, he remains a foremost human rights activist. Mr. Ogbara was the 3rd Chairman of NBA Ikorodu Branch.

Gentlemen, on behalf of the 10 (ten) Past Chairmen and great members of the NBA Ikorodu Branch, the good and accommodating people of Ikorodu I welcome all Conferees to this august AGC in Lagos!

Please do enjoy Lagos hospitality at its best! Cheers and do have a memorable stay!

Idris Kolawole Thany, Esq.
Chairman, NBA Ikorodu Branch

To the NBA President and his executives, The Bench, Our highly esteemed guests, all individual and Group participants, Senior counsels and Learned colleagues and friends of the Bar, I feel highly excited and elated to welcome all of you to this prestigious annual event which parades who is who among the Nigerian Legal Practitioners. I welcome all the erudite and eminent speakers from different walks of life who sacrifice their time, energy and money to render their contribution to the nations Law development, Law Practice and providing solutions to the excruciating problems prevalent in the socio-political structure of our country Nigeria.

The 62nd Annual General Conference of the Nigerian Bar Association whose theme is "Bold Transitions" presents a unique, remarkable, educative and interactive sessions that offer Participants and Lawyers an unrivalled opportunity to enlarge their knowledge on contemporary legal and political issues in Nigeria. It is a balance between education and play, learning and leisure, obedience and freedom, safety and autonomy.

In my opinion, the NBA General Conference has immensely provided legal and social instruments to cure some of the nation's malaise. This year's event is structured to impact more than others and hence, participants are expected to go home with information and knowledge necessary for the Law Practice, Law reform, Administration of Justice and nation building in general.

Once again, I welcome you to this great occasion and as we depart to our various destinations, I pray that merciful God grant us journey mercy. Amen

THE INSTITUTE OF CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION (ICLE) OF THE NBA

All Nigerian Lawyers in legal practice or employment must comply with the Nigerian Bar Association's Mandatory Continuing Legal Education (MCLE) Programme.

Lawyers are required to take mandatory continuing legal education (MCLE) courses in order to qualify to practice law within our jurisdiction.

The Nigerian Bar Association Institute of Continuing Legal Education (ICLE) serves as the CLE regulatory authority for the NBA—and the profession—by providing standards and scope for the MCLE programme. ICLE is overseen by the Board of MCLE and works closely with NBA Sections and the various local branches at large in developing programs on MCLE.

The NBA branches, sections and fora hold workshops and seminars. These 1-2 day programmes use a combination of lectures and workshops to present valuable information to the legal profession. In addition to the legal instruction offered, they provide a unique networking opportunity for lawyers who practice in the same or related areas of interest.

The administration of the programme for MCLE is under the supervision of the Mandatory Continuing Legal Education Board. The Mandatory Continuing Legal Education (MCLE) has Rules and Guidelines and Regulations which shall operate under the Institute of Continuing Legal Education established by the Nigerian Bar Association. The MCLE Rules and Guidelines and Regulations set out the mode of operation of the MCLE programme.

The National Executive Committee (NEC) of the Nigerian Bar Association (NBA) at its meeting of 15th February 2007 at Owerri, Imo State approved the “Mandatory Continuing Legal Education Rules (MCLE Rules)” pursuant to Rule 11 of the Rules of Professional Conduct for Legal Practitioners 2007.

Creation of the State

Lagos State was created on May 27, 1967 by virtue of the States [Creation and Transitional Provisions] Decree No. 14 of 1967 which restructured Nigeria's Federation into 12 States. Prior to this, Lagos Municipality was administered as a Federal Territory by the Federal Government through the Federal Ministry of Lagos Affairs as the regional authority, while the Lagos City Council governed the City of Lagos. Equally, the Metropolitan areas [Colony Province] of Ikeja, Agege, Mushin, Ojo, Ikorodu, Epe, and Badagry were then administered by the Western Region Government.

The State took off as an administrative entity on April 11, 1968 with Lagos Island serving the dual role of being the State and Federal Capital respectively. However, with the creation of the Federal Capital Territory of Abuja in 1976, Lagos ceased to be the capital of the State, as this was moved to Ikeja. Similarly, with the formal relocation of the seat of the Federal Government to Abuja on 12th December, 1991, Lagos ceased to be Nigeria's political capital.

Nevertheless, Lagos remains the nation's economic and commercial capital. According to extant political records, "Lagos is to the people of Nigeria, what the head is to the body of an individual."

Location

The State is located on the South-Western part of Nigeria, on the narrow plain of the Bight of Benin. Lying approximately on longitude 20 42'E and 32 2'E respectively, and between latitude 60 22'N and 60 2'N, Lagos State is bounded in the North and East by Ogun State of Nigeria, in the West by Republic of Benin, and stretches over 180 kilometers along the Guinea Coast of the Bight of Benin on the Atlantic Ocean. Its territorial extent and political jurisdiction encompasses the city of Lagos and the four administrative divisions of Ikeja, Badagry, Ikorodu, Lagos and Epe collectively referred to as IBILE and covering an area of 358,862 hectares or 3,577 sq. km. which represents 0.4% of Nigeria's territorial land mass of 923,773 sq. km.

It's People

Historically, Lagos was mostly populated by the Yoruba people, inhabited by its sub-nationality of Aworis and Ogus in Ikeja and Badagry Divisions respectively, with the Ogus being found mainly in Badagry and the Awori forming the indigenous population of Lagos where there are. Nevertheless, other pioneer immigrant settlers – Edos, Saros, Brazilians, Kannike/Tapa, etc collectively called Lagosians but more appropriately referred to as the Ekos. For Ikorodu and Epe Divisions, the local populations are mainly the Remos and Ijebus with pockets of Eko-Awori settlers along the entire State coastland and riverine areas. However, despite its Yoruba indigeneity, the State is a global socio-cultural melting pot attracting Nigerians, Africans and foreigners alike. The situation is attributable to its sound economic base, strategic maritime location and socio-political importance which induced a high rate of migration to the State. Indeed, Lagos is home to all.

Lagos State Economy

Lagos State has been ranked as the fifth largest economy in Africa. If Lagos were a country, it would rank fifth, ahead of countries such as Kenya and Ghana. Lagos continues to remain the economic, financial and commercial nerve centre of Nigeria and the ECOWAS. Regionally, her Gross National Product [GNP] is three times that of any West African Country, thus making Lagos State ECOWAS economic hub and the springboard for innovation and development in Nigeria and sub-Saharan Africa.

Policy Focus / Driving Values

Mr. Governor Sanwo-Olu was sworn in as the 15th Governor of Lagos State on the 29th of May, 2019. Mr. Governor has used his tenure to implement the THEMES agenda; which addresses Traffic Management and Transportation, Health and Environment, Education and Technology, Making Lagos a 21st Century Economy, Entertainment and Tourism, as well as Security and Governance". Lagos is on the right path in assuming its position in the committee of leading cities in the world.

Mr. Moyosore Onigbanjo, SAN, the 18th Attorney-General and Commissioner for Justice has been instrumental in ensuring the rule of law is upheld and has overseen the administration of Justice in Lagos state, thereby providing a strong foundation for the attainment of the THEMES agenda.
